Results	The quality of life in the Western world has led to greater longevity, which has resulted in a demographic growth, mainly since retirement. This situation has generated new demands and social needs. It is intended to form an "excellent" group of students in subjects taught at both universities. Students will acquire and/or complete theoretical and practical knowledge, which merge together with their experience and wisdom. All this will revert positively in society, increasing the quality of life of older people, improving the practice through the development and improvement of their knowledge, skills, strategies and resources.
